

Marian College Sabre Run

by Brad Theyerl

Spring is not far away which means it will be time for the Marian College Sabre Run/Walk. The 28th annual event will be held on Saturday, April 26th at the college's Sadoff Gymnasium.

Once again, students from a Sport & Recreation class at Marian College are in charge of many aspects planning the event such as publicity, sponsors, budget, refreshments, the entry form, designing the T-shirt, and awards. There will also be a large Wellness Expo at the event this year. All proceeds benefit the Marian College athletics department. Registration begins at 8:30 AM and the first event starts at 9:30 AM.

The Sabre Run offers something for everyone. A 5 mile and 2 mile run, 3 mile walk, and for the kids there is a 12 & under 1 mile run and a 1/3 mile run for kids 6 & under; all of which happen to be the same events that we have at our Walleye Run. The Sabre Run features fast courses, an excellent gathering area (Sadoff Gymnasium), and good awards and refreshments. You can't beat it! See you there.
